Description
Intro
How can the stored contents of a questionnaire be moved to a new version of the configuration? Or: how can editors see the 'old' version while editing the 'new' version?
Decisions:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The cases will be migrated manually and selectively by creating a new version of a questionnaire (=editing a published version). There is no automatic migration of data.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Only published questionnaires can be migrated to a new version</li><li>• All questionnaires within the 'release' process keep the configuration that they have been created with.</li></ul></li><li>• If a public questionnaire is edited, and a new version of the configuration is available, this new version is used and the user is informed.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A warning message has to point the user to this configuration change.</li><li>• A documentation / help page has to be provided in which the changes from one version to the other are listed and explained.</li><li>• Best case: this info is automatically generated from the new configuration.</li><li>• The notification has to point to this documentation.</li></ul></li><li>• New feature: 'case history' (=display an old version of a questionnaire). This will need some work, as templates, views, etc. are expecting only one version of the configuration now. Something like 'loose coupling' for views, forms, templates must be introduced.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• This is required, so data can be migrated. 'Old' questionnaire data cannot be displayed with a 'new' configuration. Example: a field is changed from text data to a list of checkboxes.</li></ul></li></ul>
